HLT40221 – Certificate IV in Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Primary Health Care Practice

(Release 1)

KAMS RTO National Code:4386
12 Napier Terrace, Broome, Western Australia 6725

Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people working to provide a range of clinical primary health care services to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities, including specific health care programs, advice and assistance with, and administration of, medication.

These workers can be expected to flexibly assume a variety of job roles and undertake a broad range of tasks either individually or as a member of a multidisciplinary team.

This qualification addresses the specific legislative responsibilities of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Practitioners and is required for national registration with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practice Board of Australia.

This qualification supersedes the previous HLT40213 qualification and is not equivalent.

Entry Requirements

Kimberley Aboriginal Medical Services requires entrants to be 18 years of age and provide a certified copy or original of photo ID.

Entrants must provide or be able to obtain:

- National Police Clearance
- Working with Children Check (WWCC)
- Immunisation records including proof of COVID-19 vaccination

Acceptance into this Certificate IV level course will be subject to the result of a Language, Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Skills Assessment.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this qualification

Work Placement

Students will be required to complete a total of 500 hours of work placement within clinical and non-clinical settings.
