

Research Engagement Request

This form should be used by researchers as part of making initial contact with Kimberley organisations for potential involvement in an Aboriginal health research project.

Please send the completed form to researchreview@kamsc.org.au

Details about person/team making this request, including current role and research experience with Aboriginal people:

Contact email address and phone number:

Please provide an overview of your research idea or project proposal, including any specific Kimberley organisations you want to engage with. A complete proposal can be submitted with this form.

What resources do you bring to this project? (E.g. funding, research or other expertise available, other):

Which KAHPF subcommittee/s and KAHPF regional indicators does the proposed project relate to?

Timeframe (including start and finish date):

What are you asking for from Kimberley organisations?

What would the benefit be to the Kimberley organisations and/or Kimberley Aboriginal people?