

Start your career in Aboriginal Health with KAMS

The Kimberley Aboriginal Medical Services has developed pathway programs designed to make a career in Aboriginal Health more accessible for our local community. Our vision is to develop a skilled, supported and community-controlled Kimberley Aboriginal Health workforce and provide support to member services and other Aboriginal organisations in the Kimberley.

See just some of the career pathways available to you below.

Learn how KAMS can support your path to a career in Aboriginal Health

Speak to a member of the KAMS team to find out more or contact us on 08 9194 3200 or email recruitment@kamsc.org.au